CLIENT EXPERIENCE (CX) REPORT

RSM in Kuwait : Voice of Clients (CX) Annual Report

Reporting Period:
1 July 2025 – 30 June 2026

Listening. Learning. Improving.

Client Experience Dashboard

At RSM in Kuwait, our philosophy is built on the power of being understood. Central to this is a genuine understanding of the client experience. Each year, we ask three questions of ourselves: Are our clients satisfied? Is it easy to work with us? Do we continue to earn their trust?

This report brings together feedback from the year ending 30 June 2026. It draws on three performance indicators: client satisfaction, likelihood to recommend and ease of working. The findings reflect both what we are doing well and where we can do better. We value the openness of our clients and remain focused on using this feedback to strengthen our collaboration and their overall experience.

How We Listen

Feedback is captured automatically at key moments in every engagement.

1. Engagement milestone
   A survey triggers automatically mid-engagement and again at completion.
2. Short survey sent
   A focused set of questions with optional comments, plus reminder emails.
3. Client responds
   CSAT on a 1–5 scale, CES on a 1–7 scale and NPS on a 0–10 scale.
4. Action taken
   Neutral or low ratings raise an immediate follow-up task.

Three Question Cards

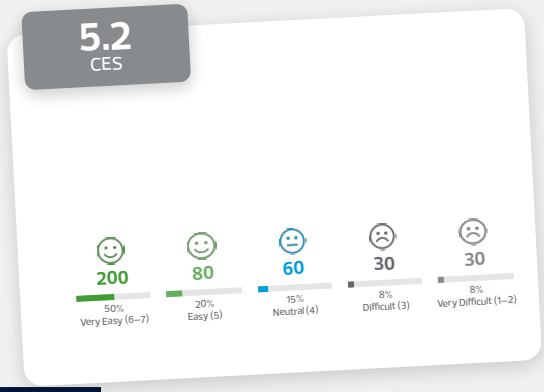

CSAT

How satisfied are you with the overall quality of services provided by RSM in Kuwait?

NPS

On a scale from 0 to 10, how likely are you to recommend RSM in Kuwait to a colleague or business associate?

CES

To what extent do you agree: RSM in Kuwait made it easy for me to get the service and support I needed?

How We Run the Listening Programme

RSM in Kuwait follows a set of structured practices to measure the voice of clients and to support ongoing service improvement.

Immediate Action Protocol: Neutral or low ratings trigger immediate follow-up for resolution.

Reminder System: Automated reminders encourage survey completion without adding workload.

Simple Survey Design: Focused questions with optional comments improve participation.

Automated Engagement Triggers: Surveys are automatically sent at key engagement milestones.

Dedicated Follow-up
Team members directly connect with clients sharing detailed feedback.

Summary and Outlook

85%

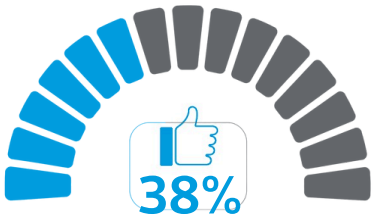

340 of 400 clients rated us 4 or 5

Customer Satisfaction

A CSAT of 85% reflects steady service quality across the year. The result is drawn from 340 of 400 responses rating the experience as satisfied or very satisfied. The 20 dissatisfied responses have been followed up directly. In line with ongoing efforts, we remain focused on sustaining this level through consistent delivery and clear communication.

Net Promoter Score

An NPS of 38% indicates a base of client advocates, with 210 promoters compared to 60 detractors. This reflects strong trust built through consistent service across engagements. We continue to focus on supporting satisfied clients to become active advocates through closer engagement and clear communication.

210 promoters vs 60 detractors

Methodology – Net Promoter Score

NPS in this report uses the standard global 0–10 scale. Promoters rate 9–10, neutral respondents 7–8 and detractors 0–6. NPS = % Promoters – % Detractors, shown in whole percentage points.

60 clients rated the engagement experience as difficult or very difficult

Customer Effort Score

A CES of 5.2 suggests clients find it effortless to work with us, supported by proactive, clear communication and consistent follow-up with automated reminders. The distribution sits at the easier end of the scale, with 280 of 400 responses rating the experience 5 or higher. This points to clear communication and responsive client-facing teams. We aim to sustain this during peak periods through greater visibility of engagement status.

Methodology – Customer Effort Score

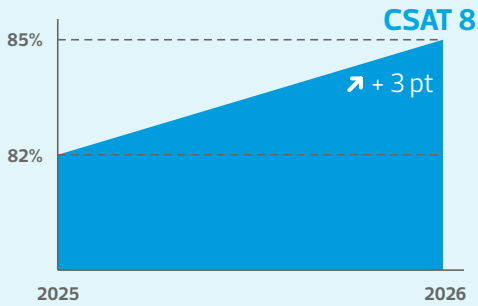

CES in this report uses a 1–7 agreement scale. Ratings of 6–7 are shown as Very Easy, 5 as Easy, 4 as Neutral, 3 as Difficult and 1–2 as Very Difficult. CES is the mean of all ratings, with higher scores indicating that clients find it easier to work with us.

Summary and Outlook

The 2025–26 results across the three measures tracked are summarised below. RSM in Kuwait achieved a client satisfaction rate of 85%, a Net Promoter Score of 38% and a Customer Effort Score of 5.2 out of 7. 3 of 3 measures improved on the prior year and 1 of 3 met or exceeded the target set for the period. Taken together, the findings show where we are performing well and where we can do better.

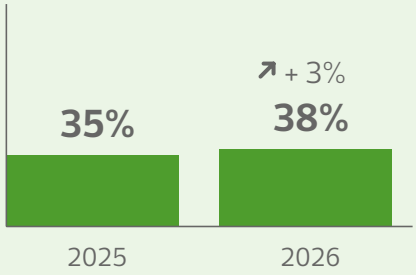

Performance against target

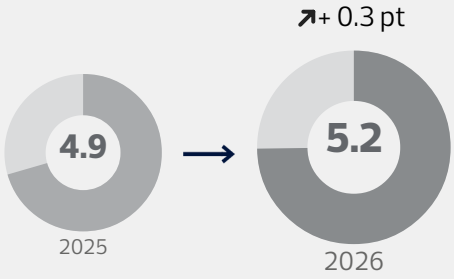

The context for each result is outlined below.

Below target. 340 of 400 clients rated their experience as satisfied or very satisfied, an improvement of 3 percentage points on the prior year. The focus is to sustain this through consistent execution and clear communication.

Below target. An NPS of 38% improves on the prior year result of 35% by 3%, with 210 promoters and 60 detractors from 400 responses. The focus is to support satisfied clients in becoming active advocates through closer engagement.

Exceeds target. 280 of 400 responses sit at the easier end of the scale, an improvement of 0.3 on the prior year. The focus is to sustain this during peak periods through proactive communication while leveraging technology to auto-remind clients of milestone.

From 1 July 2025 to 30 June 2026, 500 surveys were sent and 400 responses received, up on the prior year. As outreach widened, the response rate moved from 70% to 80%. We continue to refine reminder timing and survey length to support participation.

Where We Aim to Improve

Advocacy

Support satisfied clients to become active advocates through clearer expectation-setting at the start of each engagement and regular partner check-ins.

Visibility

Provide clients with clearer visibility of engagement status through real-time progress updates and next-action summaries.

Consistency

Promote consistent delivery practices across all teams through champion-led coaching and quarterly CX playbook reviews.

From Insight to Action

A cross-functional CX Committee turns client feedback into change on a monthly rhythm.

A cross-functional CX Committee defines annual priorities, tracks progress and embeds effective practices from experienced teams. Each service line nominates a CX Champion responsible for monitoring results, coordinating interventions and managing client outreach where required.

Leadership

A cross-functional Customer Experience (CX) Committee brings together representatives from across the firm to review feedback and align on priorities.

Governance

Establishes targets, monitors CX KPIs, follows up on low ratings and facilitates the sharing of effective practices across teams.

Champions

Each service line appoints a CX Champion responsible for implementing actions, coordinating interventions and maintaining ongoing client communication.

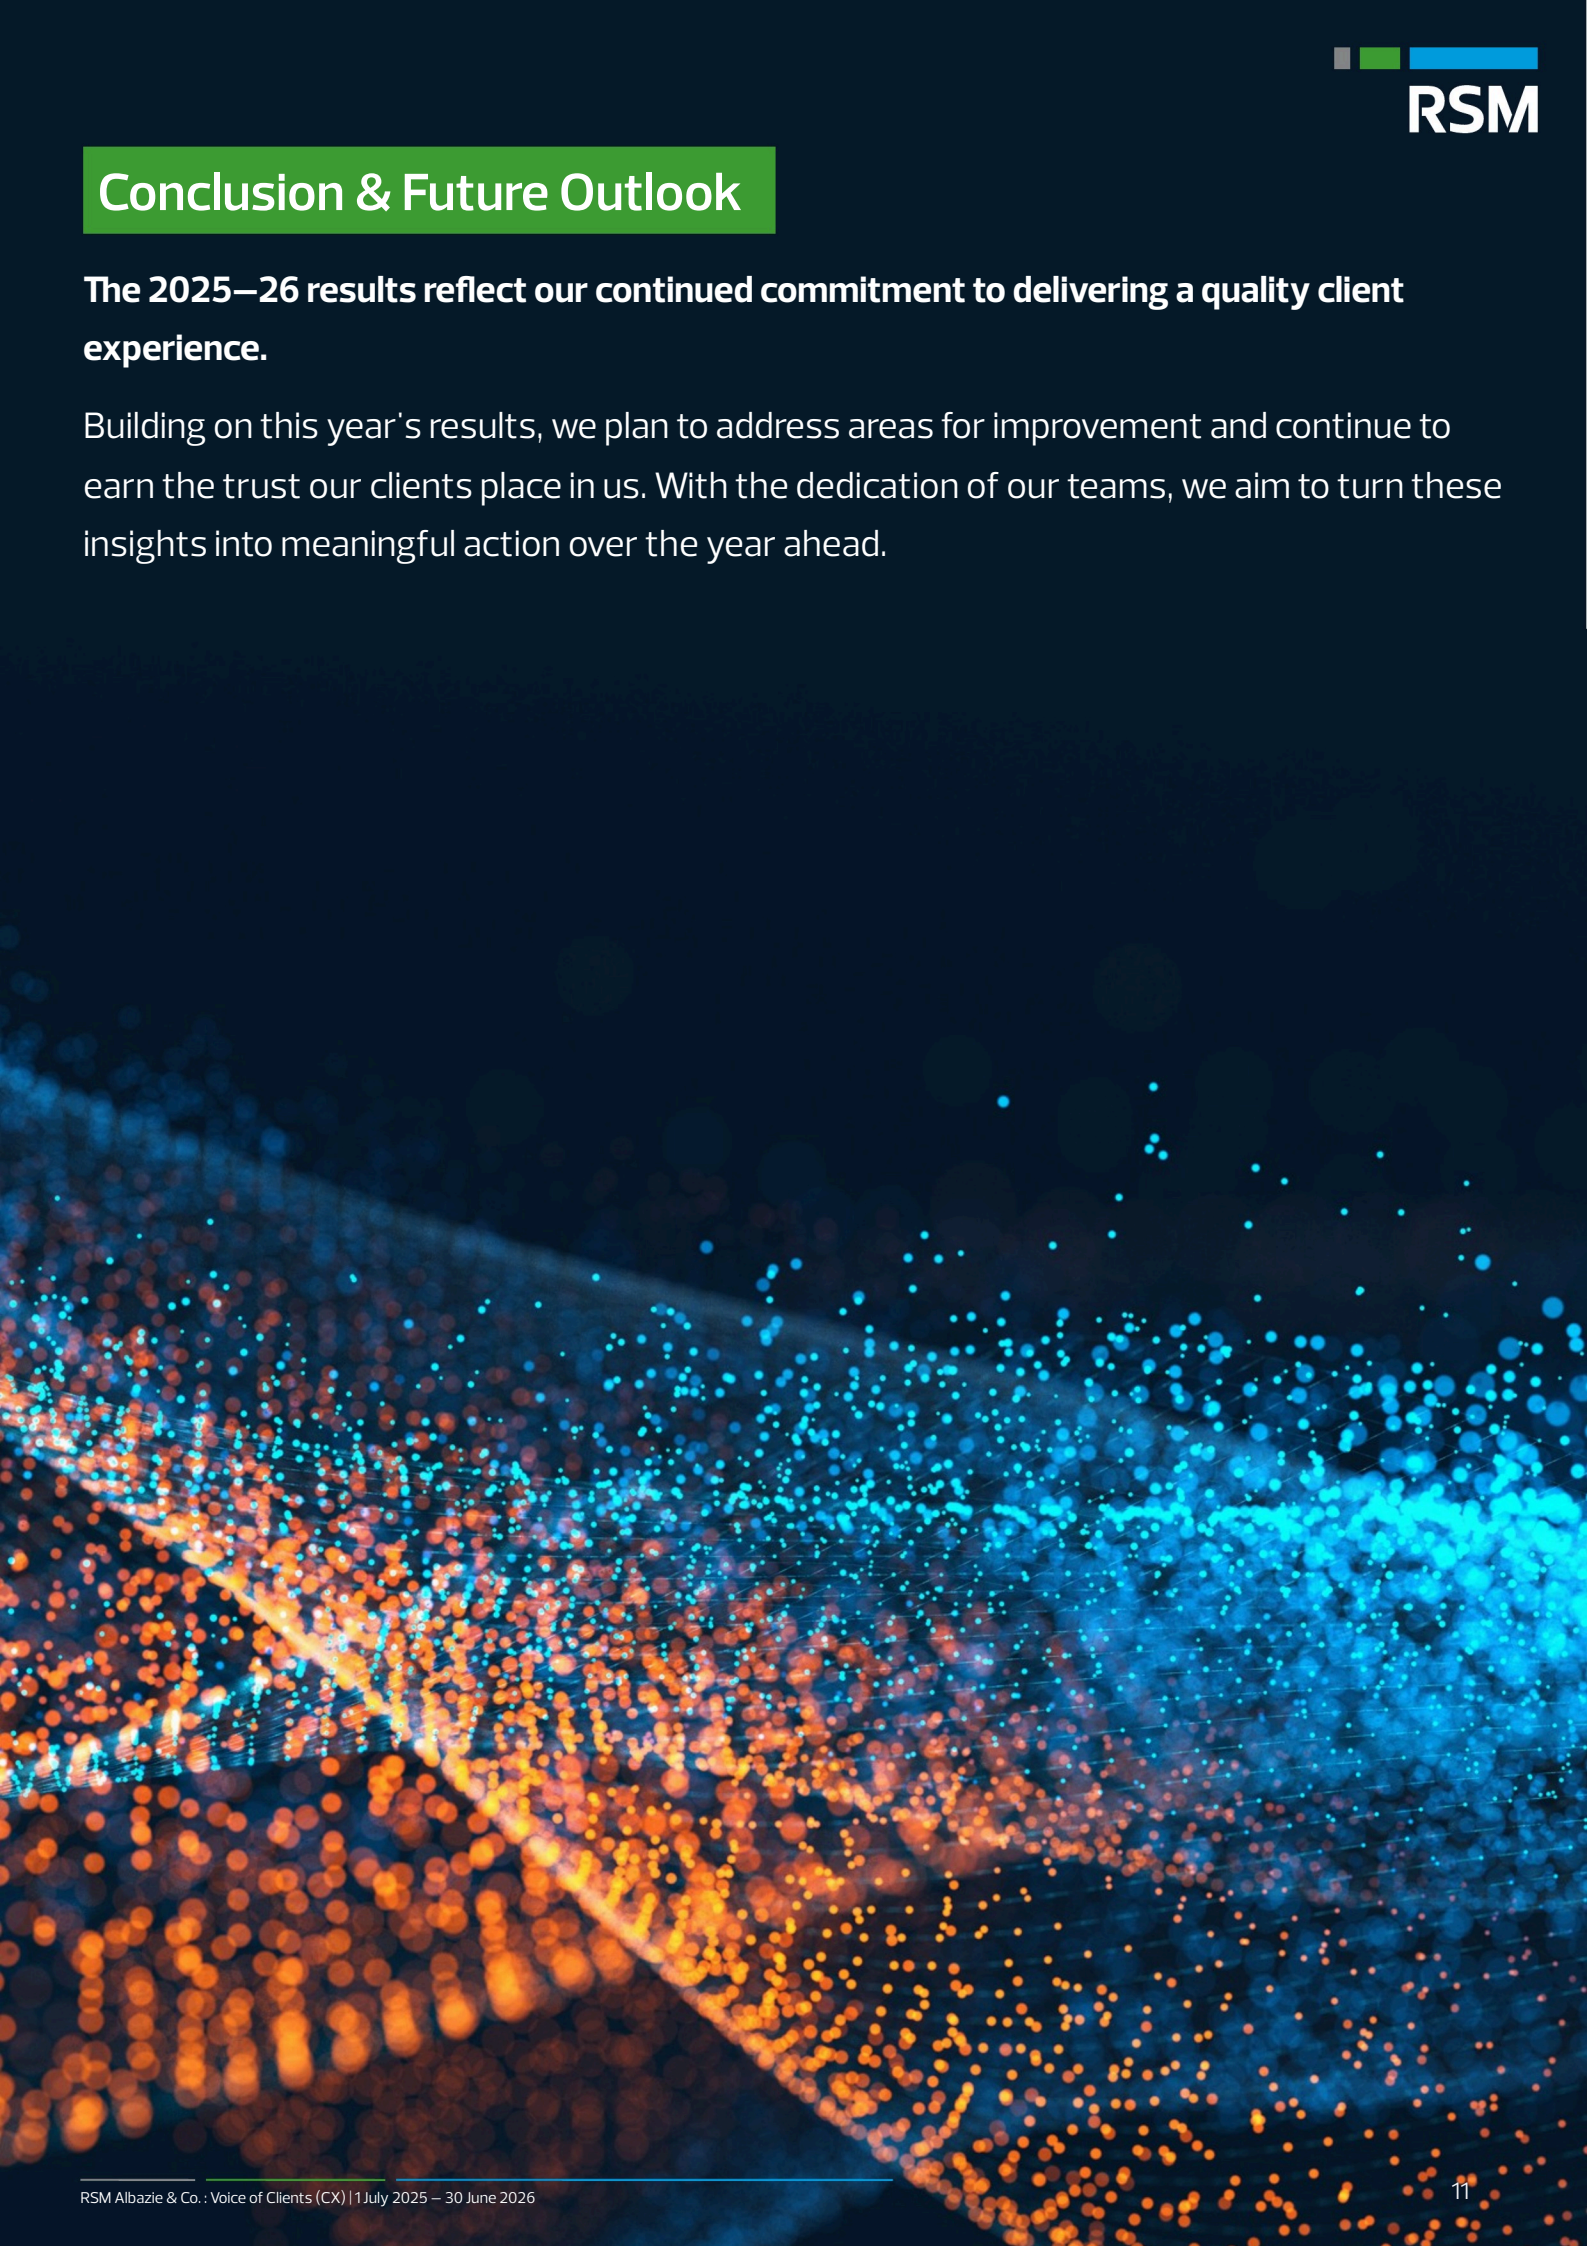

Operating rhythm

Monthly performance reviews, on-demand escalation management and quarterly updates to CX playbooks keep teams aligned and responsive.

Conclusion & Future Outlook

The 2025–26 results reflect our continued commitment to delivering a quality client experience.

Building on this year's results, we plan to address areas for improvement and continue to earn the trust our clients place in us. With the dedication of our teams, we aim to turn these insights into meaningful action over the year ahead.
