How We Listen

Feedback is captured automatically at key moments in every engagement.

1. Engagement milestone
A survey triggers automatically mid-engagement and again at completion.

2. Short survey sent
A focused set of questions with optional comments, plus reminder emails.

3. Client responds
CSAT on a 1–5 scale, CES on a 1–7 scale and NPS on a 0–10 scale.

4. Action taken
Neutral or low ratings raise an immediate follow-up task.

Summary

90%

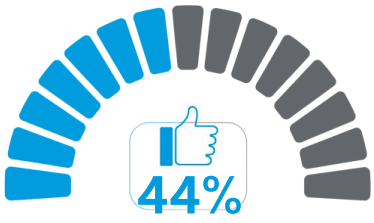

9 of 10 clients rated us 4 or 5

Customer Satisfaction

A CSAT of 90% is 7 points below the 97% target. The result is drawn from 9 of 10 responses rating the experience as satisfied or very satisfied. No dissatisfied responses were recorded. We remain focused on closing the gap through consistent delivery and clear communication.

Net Promoter Score

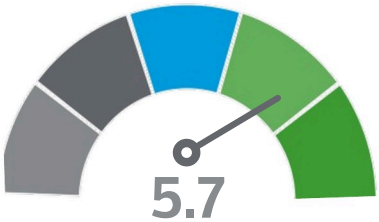

An NPS of 44% is 26 points below the target of 70, with 5 promoters compared to 1 detractor. We continue to focus on supporting satisfied clients to become active advocates through closer engagement and clear communication.

5 promoters vs 1 detractor

Methodology – Net Promoter Score

NPS in this report uses the standard global 0–10 scale. Promoters rate 9–10, neutral respondents 7–8 and detractors 0–6. NPS = % Promoters – % Detractors, shown in whole percentage points.

No client rated the engagement experience as difficult or very difficult

Customer Effort Score

A CES of 5.7 suggests clients find it effortless to work with us, supported by clear communication and consistent follow-up with automated reminders. The distribution sits at the easier end of the scale, with 9 of 10 responses rating the experience 5 or higher. We aim to sustain this during peak periods through greater visibility of engagement status.

Methodology – Customer Effort Score

CES in this report uses a 1–7 agreement scale. Ratings of 6–7 are shown as Very Easy, 5 as Easy, 4 as Neutral, 3 as Difficult and 1–2 as Very Difficult. CES is the mean of all ratings, with higher scores indicating that clients find it easier to work with us.

Follow-up: 1 case was raised for neutral or low ratings, 0 closed. Comments: Example comment summary. Replace with a short, factual summary of client comments for the period. Fewer than 10 responses sit behind one or more scores, so read them as indicative.
