CLIENT EXPERIENCE (CX) REPORT

RSM in Kuwait : Voice of Clients (CX) Annual Report

Reporting Period:
1 July 2025 – 30 June 2026

Listening. Learning. Improving.

Client Experience Dashboard

At RSM Kuwait, our philosophy is built on the power of being understood. Central to this is a genuine understanding of the client experience. Each year, we ask three questions of ourselves: Are our clients satisfied? Is it easy to work with us? Do we continue to earn their trust?

This report brings together feedback from the year ending 30 June 2026. It draws on three performance indicators: client satisfaction, likelihood to recommend and ease of working. The findings reflect both what we are doing well and where we can do better. We value the openness of our clients and remain focused on using this feedback to strengthen our collaboration and their overall experience.

73%

Response rate:

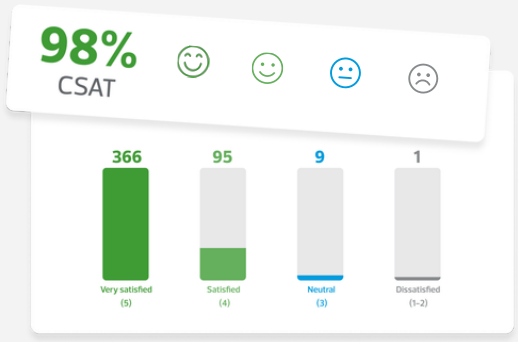

Response volume more than doubled year on year, from 205 responses in 2024–25 to 471 in 2025–26. This wider participation provides a more representative view of our client base.

How We Listen

Feedback is captured automatically at key moments in every engagement.

1. Engagement milestone
   A survey triggers automatically mid-engagement and again at completion.
2. Short survey sent
   A focused set of questions with optional comments, plus reminder emails.
3. Client responds
   Ratings on a 1–5 scale, feeding CSAT, NPS and CES.
4. Action taken
   Neutral or low ratings raise an immediate follow-up task.

Three Question Cards

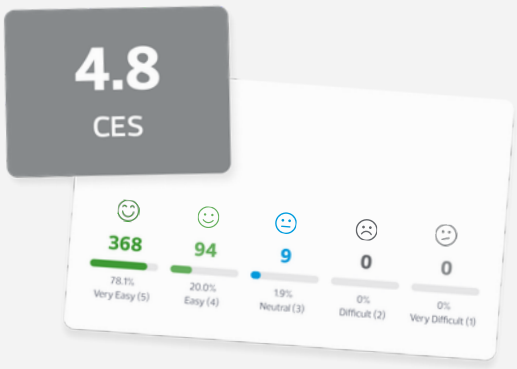

CSAT

"How would you rate the quality of services provided?"

NPS

"Would you recommend RSM in Kuwait to others?"

CES

"How easy was it to work with our team?"

How We Run the Listening Programme

RSM Kuwait follows a set of structured practices to measure the voice of clients and to support ongoing service improvement.

Immediate Action Protocol:
Neutral or low ratings trigger immediate follow-up for resolution.

Reminder System:
Automated reminders encourage survey completion without adding workload.

Simple Survey Design:
Focused questions with optional comments improve participation.

Automated Engagement Triggers:
Surveys are automatically sent at key engagement milestones.

Dedicated Follow-up
Team members directly connect with clients sharing detailed feedback.

Summary and Outlook

98%

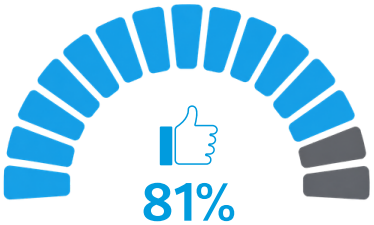

461 of 471 clients rated us 4 or 5

Customer Satisfaction

A CSAT of 98% reflects steady service quality across the year. The result is drawn from 461 of 471 responses rating the experience as satisfied or very satisfied. The single dissatisfied response has been followed up directly. In line with ongoing efforts, we remain focused on sustaining this level through consistent delivery and clear communication.

Net Promoter Score

An NPS of 81% indicates a base of client advocates, with 391 promoters compared to 11 detractors. This reflects strong trust built through consistent service across engagements. We continue to focus on supporting satisfied clients to become active advocates through closer engagement and clear communication.

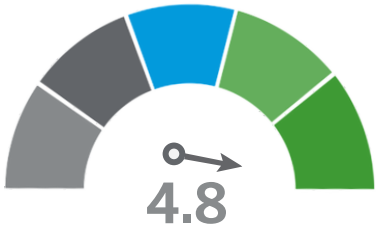

81%

391 promoters vs 11 detractors

Methodology – Net Promoter Score

NPS in this report uses a simplified 1–5 scale, not the standard global 0–10 scale, to keep the survey easy to complete. A rating of 5 equals 9–10 globally (Promoter), 4 equals 7–8 (Neutral) and 1–3 equals 0–6 (Detractor). NPS = % Promoters – % Detractors, consistent with the global standard.

4.8

No client rated the engagement experience as difficult or very difficult

Customer Effort Score

A CES of 4.8 suggests clients find it effortless through collaboration and proactive Clear communication and Consistent follow-up with automated reminder to work with us. The distribution sits at the easier end of the scale, with 462 of 471 responses rating the experience 4 or 5. This points to clear communication and responsive client-facing teams. We aim to sustain this during peak periods through greater visibility of engagement status.

Methodology – Customer Effort Score

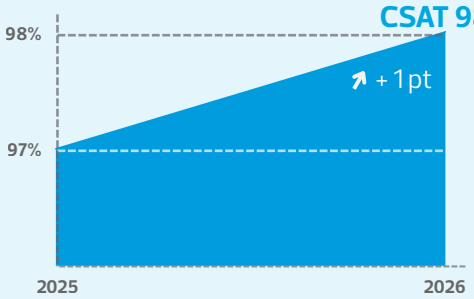

CES in this report uses a simplified 1–5 scale to measure the ease of client interactions. A rating of 1 represents a difficult experience, while a rating of 5 represents an easy experience. CES is calculated based on the distribution of responses across the scale, with higher scores indicating that clients generally find it easier to work with us.

Summary and Outlook

The 2025–26 results reflect steady progress across all three measures tracked. RSM Kuwait achieved a client satisfaction rate of 98%, a Net Promoter Score of 81% and a Customer Effort Score of 4.8 out of 5. Each measure improved on the prior year and exceeded the target set for the period. Taken together, the findings indicate a consistent foundation in service quality, client trust and ease of working.

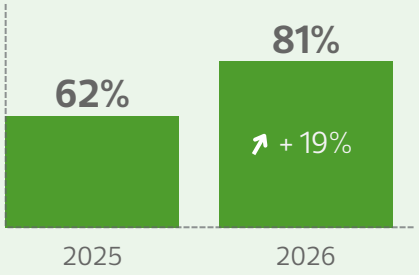

Performance against target

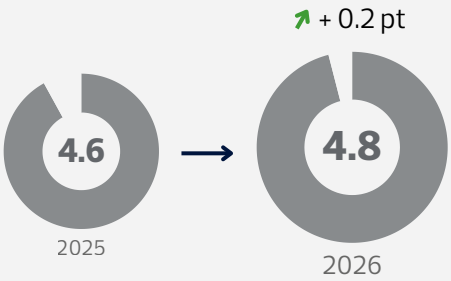

Our performance reflects a strong year across all three measures. The context for each result is outlined below.

Exceeds target. 461 of 471 clients rated their experience as satisfied or very satisfied, an improvement of one percentage point on the prior year. The focus is to sustain this through consistent execution and clear communication.

Exceeds target. An NPS of 81% improves on the prior year result of 62% by 19%, with 391 promoters and 11 detractors from 471 responses. The focus is to support satisfied clients in becoming active advocates through closer engagement.

Exceeds target. 462 of 471 responses sit at the easier end of the scale, an improvement of 0.2 on the prior year. The focus is to sustain this during peak periods through proactive communication while leveraging technology to auto-remind clients of milestone.

From 1 July 2025 to 30 June 2026, 648 surveys were sent and 471 responses received, more than doubling the prior year volume. As outreach widened, the response rate moved from 83% to 73%. We continue to refine reminder timing and survey length to support participation.

The Voice of Clients

Where We Aim to Improve

Advocacy

Support satisfied clients to become active advocates through clearer expectation-setting at the start of each engagement and regular partner check-ins.

Visibility

Provide clients with clearer visibility of engagement status through real-time progress updates and next-action summaries.

Consistency

Promote consistent delivery practices across all teams through champion-led coaching and quarterly CX playbook reviews.

From Insight to Action

A cross-functional CX Committee turns client feedback into change on a monthly rhythm.

A cross-functional CX Committee defines annual priorities, tracks progress and embeds effective practices from experienced teams. Each service line nominates a CX Champion responsible for monitoring results, coordinating interventions and managing client outreach where required.

Leadership

A cross-functional Customer Experience (CX) Committee brings together representatives from across the firm to review feedback and align on priorities.

Governance

Establishes targets, monitors CX KPIs, follows up on low ratings and facilitates the sharing of effective practices across teams.

Champions

Each service line appoints a CX Champion responsible for implementing actions, coordinating interventions and maintaining ongoing client communication.

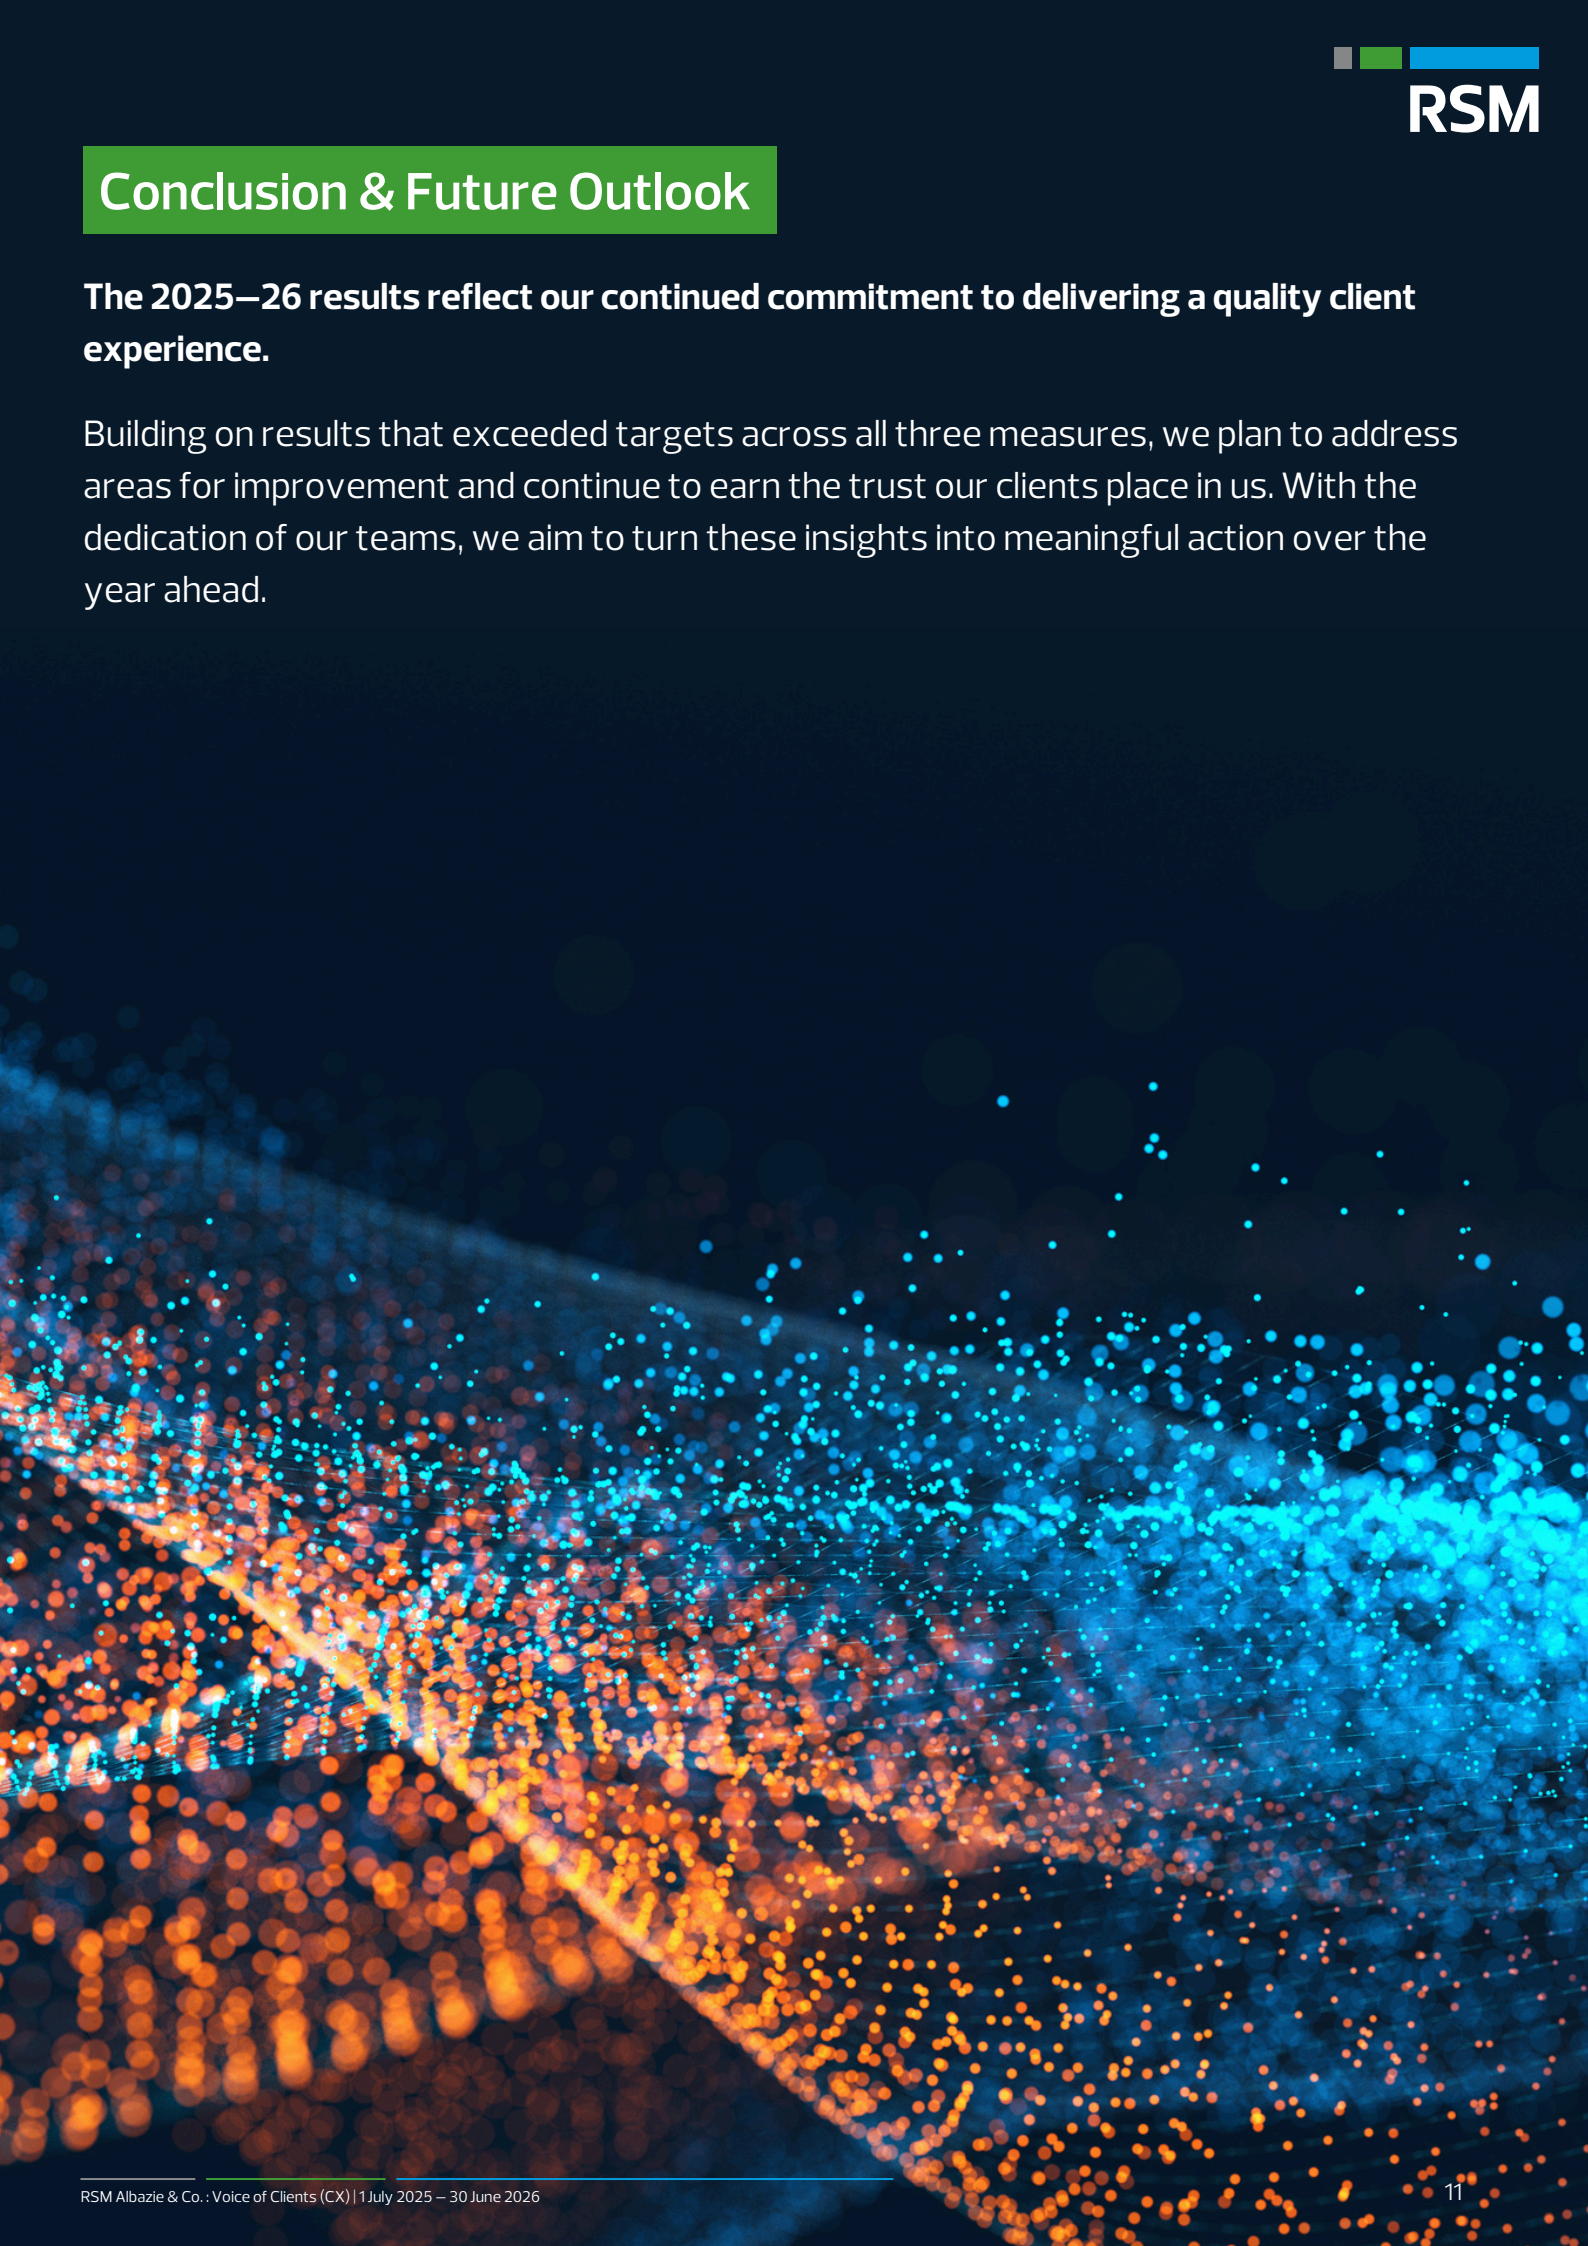

Operating rhythm

Monthly performance reviews, on-demand escalation management and quarterly updates to CX playbooks keep teams aligned and responsive.

Conclusion & Future Outlook

The 2025–26 results reflect our continued commitment to delivering a quality client experience.

Building on results that exceeded targets across all three measures, we plan to address areas for improvement and continue to earn the trust our clients place in us. With the dedication of our teams, we aim to turn these insights into meaningful action over the year ahead.
